

: - Objectives of Self Finance courses: -

- To identify skills & Practices necessary to help for their personal development.
- To bring overall development in rural student.
- To enhance the student to participate in higher education.
- To provide students practical knowledge about computer & online transaction.
- To develop an ability amongst the student to react on any issues regarding social as well as economical situation
- To gain critical knowledge of various concept.