The college was started by Amar Shikshan Prasarak Sanstha, Mangrulpir. It was established from the money of donation given by a visionary personality Danshur Amarsinghji Naik, resident of Asola. He was aiming to provide higher education to the students from the surrounding area of Mangrulpir taluka. Under his guidance President of by Amar Shikshan Prasarak Sanstha, former Principal Shri A. The main intent behind establishing the college was to provide higher education in less cost to the economically backward students, especially children of agricultural labours, farmers and deprived sections of society. The college has been rendering educational services to the students of Mangrulpir town and adjoining areas for the period of the last 48 years.
